

Fresno State continues to make a deep impact on our community and beyond. From excelling in the classroom and advancing research to positively changing the trajectory of over 25,000 students, we are giving everyone in the larger Central Valley a reason to be proud.

Defining the Valley

$1 billion in economic activity contributed to the San Joaquin Valley each year

Possibility Meets Intention

Ranked No. 2 nationally in Washington Monthly's 2025 Best Colleges for Your Tuition (and Tax) Dollars

Teaching that Matters

R2 designated institution for high research activity and awarded doctoral degrees

College of Health and Human Services

As Fresno State works to define the future of our Valley and beyond, its colleges lead the way in specialized fields. The College of Health and Human Services is dedicated to this pursuit, offering degree programs across seven disciplines to train over 4,000 students as healthcare practitioners, human services professionals, and leaders who will transform the quality of life for residents across the region.

By the Numbers

- Ranked No. 2 Physical Therapy program in California for quality and affordability by College Factual
- Ranked No. 2 Recreation Administration program in the U.S. for best value by College Values Online
- Ranked No. 2 graduate degree in Sport Psychology by Degree Choices
- Master of Public Health program recognized as a top value graduate program by Money magazine

Competitive Career Pathways

Graduates from the College of Health and Human Services go on to become industry leaders, securing jobs in a range of fields and pursuing careers with competitive salaries.

- Registered Nurse - $126,271*
- Physical Therapist - $118,510*
- Speech-Language Pathologist - $97,790*
- Recreational Therapist - $93,991*
- Healthcare Social Worker - $91,909*

*Fresno County median annual wage

Educating Future Leaders

Fresno State's Recreation Administration Department offers the only Sports and Entertainment Facility Management degree within the entire California State University system, equipping students with practical, hands-on experience for careers spanning venue operations, event marketing, customer accommodations and more.

This upper-division Sports and Entertainment Facility Operations course provides students networking opportunities with top industry professionals and a behind-the-scenes look at some of California's most renowned venues, including the Rose Bowl, the Kia Forum and the Intuit Dome.

This is just one of several departments within the College of Health and Human Services that prepare students to lead and serve their communities.

Find Your Calling

Communicative Sciences and Deaf Studies

Bachelor of Arts - Communicative Sciences:

- Speech-Language Pathology

Bachelor of Arts - Deaf Studies:

- Deaf Education
- Deaf Studies
- Interpreting

Master of Arts - Speech-Language Pathology

Master of Arts - Deaf Education

Kinesiology

Bachelor of Science:

- Exercise Science
- Kinesiology: Physical Education Option
- Kinesiology: Sport Administration Option

Master of Science - Athletic Training

Master of Science - Exercise Science

Master of Science - Sport and Performance Psychology

Master of Arts - Sport Administration

Recreation Administration

Bachelor of Science, with options in:

- Community Recreation, Youth Development and Senior Services
- Outdoor Recreation and Natural Resource Management
- Recreation Therapy
- Special Events and Tourism
- Sports and Entertainment Facility Management

Social Work Education

Bachelor of Arts - Social Work

Master of Social Work Education (MSW)

School of Nursing

Bachelor of Science - Nursing (BSN)

Registered Nurse to Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN to BSN)

Master of Science - Nursing (MSN)

Doctoral Programs

Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP)

Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT)

Public Health

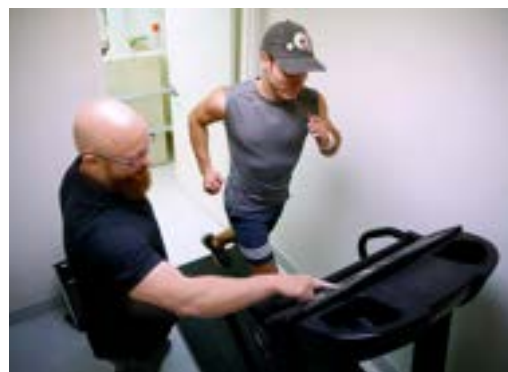

Bachelor of Science - Health Science:

- Environmental/Occupational Health and Safety
- Health Administration
- Public Health

Master of Public Health - Health Promotion (MPH - online)

Pre-Health Program

Through individualized academic advising and career exploration, this unique program provides support to students exploring majors and careers in the health and human services professions, specifically within communicative sciences, audiology, speech-language pathology, public health, kinesiology (exercise science), nursing and social work education.

559.278.4004

chhs.fresnostate.edu

@fresnostatechhs

fschhs@csufresno.edu

Fresno State College of Health and Human Services

FRESNO STATE